

Copyright Policy.

Caveat Emptor: We offer general information on this page, not legal advice. Please consult a lawyer if you have questions or concerns of a legal nature. Jethost, Host World Wide (HostWW), GlobalServerHost (GSH), SAFI Design, SAFI Software, and Pay-Per-Click are all divisions of SAFI Technologies Ltd. For the remainder of this document SAFI Technologies Ltd. and all subsidiaries and divisions shall be referred to as "Safitech."

The Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA") provides a mechanism for notifying service providers of claims of unauthorized use of copyrighted materials within the United States. Under the DMCA, a claim must be sent to the service provider's Designated Agent. Email is not an accepted form of communication as delivery origins can be spoofed and altered. If you believe in good faith that Safitech should be notified of a possible online copyright infringement involving a member of the Safitech's client base, please notify our Designated Agent by postal mail or delivery courier:

Please be aware that for United States based services, in order to be effective, your notice of claim must comply with the detailed requirements set forth in the DMCA. You are encouraged to review them (see 17 U.S.C. Sec. 512 (3)) before sending your claim. You can read all requirements at Copyright.gov.

For further explanation of any portion of this document, and the terms set herein, or to determine whether your intended activities are permissible under the terms of this document, contact us via email at legal@safitech.com. This policy may be modified from time-to-time. Customers should monitor <http://safitech.com/policies> page for changes, which become effective immediately upon posting. Variations to this policy are not permitted. Any variation presented by anyone, whether they are an official representative of Safitech or not is invalid. Safitech is not required to send notifications of policy updates.
