

Privacy Policy.

Caveat Emptor: We offer general information on this page, not legal advice. Please consult a lawyer if you have questions or concerns of a legal nature. Jethost, Host World Wide (HostWW), GlobalServerHost (GSH), SAFI Design, SAFI Software, and Pay-Per-Click are all divisions of SAFI Technologies Ltd. For the remainder of this document SAFI Technologies Ltd. and all subsidiaries and divisions shall be referred to as "Safitech."

Safitech is committed to protecting your privacy online.

The following privacy policy explains what information we gather about you and what it is used for.

INFORMATION

When you place an order, we need to know your name, email address, company name if applicable, mailing address, a home phone, work phone, and fax number, as well as your credit card number and expiration date. We need this information to process your order and to contact you, should there be a problem with your order.

USE OF INFORMATION

We do not disclose any personally identifiable information about you, such as your name, mailing address, email address or telephone number, to any third party except as necessary to register new domains. We use the information that we collect to improve our marketing and promotional efforts; additionally, we use it to analyze site usage, and to improve our product offerings.

We will use your email address and if need be your mailing address or phone number to contact you regarding administrative issues, maintenance issues, and about any change in the functioning of our products.

We may also store the information that we gather from you in a file along with any email or other written correspondence that we have had with you. This information may be used internally for administrative purposes, to enforce our terms of service, or to resolve legal matters.

COOKIES

Safitech uses cookies to track information about you. Upon entering a Safitech website, a cookie is created. The only information that this cookie displays is where you came from. For example, if you found Safitech from a search engine, the cookie will tell us from which search engine. Cookies are small packets of information that are sent from a web server to your browser, and then stored on your hard drive. Many of the newer browsers allow you to turn cookies "off." This means that when you visit a site that sets cookies, your computer will not accept it.

We use cookies to track where visitors are coming from. We look at which search engines, directories, and other web sites are bringing the most traffic to our site. We then take this information to fine tune our marketing efforts.

DISCLOSURE

Safitech will not disclose any information about any individual user except to comply with applicable laws or valid legal processes, or to protect the personal safety of our users or the public. Safitech may disclose any information about their users under special circumstances that include but are not limited to complying with the law, or assisting in rectifying an unjust doing.

INFORMATION UPDATES

We encourage you to update your personal information to keep it current. You can update your personal information in the billing interface.

We strongly recommend that you limit the access to your password as much as possible. If possible do not disclose your password to anyone. All of your account information can be changed by anyone who has knowledge of your password. You will be held liable for any activity that may occur as a result of you losing your password. If you feel that your password has been compromised, you should immediately contact any member of the Safitech staff to rectify the situation.

QUESTIONS

By using our web site, you approve of the collection and use of your information by Safitech. If at any time, we change our privacy policy, we will post such changes here. Should you have any questions about your privacy at Safitech, please e-mail legal@safitech.com

For further explanation of any portion of this document, and the terms set herein, or to determine whether your intended activities are permissible under the terms of this document, contact us via email at legal@safitech.com. This policy may be modified from time-to-time. Customers should monitor <http://safitech.com/policies> page for changes, which become effective immediately upon posting. Variations to this policy are not permitted. Any variation presented by anyone, whether they are an official representative of Safitech or not is invalid. Safitech is not required to send notifications of policy updates.
